“ Kimber, I will always remember your wit, your infectious laughter, and the fun we use to have playing Bingo, being clowns at The Detroit Sportsmen’s Club at Christmas. All the balloon animals we made prior, and the kids liked the simple swords. I’m sorry I never got to visit you when you left Michigan. But I keep wanting to text you. Behave now in heaven. God enjoys laughter, but I’m not sure he will enjoy Karaoke. Hey, who knows. Miss you.

“ Wonderful woman, I miss her so much. I knew Kim & Mike before Punky was born, They moved into a Storage Unit for Your Attic Storage, where they were live in Site Management. The Storage unit was right next door to Me in Troy, they were my new neighbors!!!! Very little time went by and they became best friends with my Wife and I. Years went by and my Wife and I divorced, not to long after Kim and her Husband were asked to leave the Storage unit job as it was being sold under a new name. They were in confusion on where to move. I invited them to move in with Me, right next door to their job. They excepted my offer, Where her Family and Myself and two kids lived together. We saw each other as God sent to each others family. Our Families remained close even after they found a new live-in Storage job. I will never forget how lucky I was to find a Family likes the Rains and will Cherish her Memory Forever!
Love and will always miss you Kim <3
