“ I met Amy at Sophia’s Kitchen 15 years ago. She was such a loyal and dedicated volunteer. We’d talk every Wednesday morning, and then start our day. She met my elderly mother at Aldi’s one day, and she never ceased to ask about her. When my mother passed, Amy came to her service at St. Bernards Church- i will never forget greeting her at the visitation. You were so fortunate to have Amy with you for so many wonderful years.
