

Anna S. Miller

August 4, 1930 - September 18, 2025

Anna "Ann" Shirley Miller passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on September 18, 2025 in Chillicothe.

She was born August 4, 1930 in Trenton, NJ.

She is survived by her four children, Debra Miller, Charles Miller Jr., Diana Becker and Donna Miller; as well as her 18 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her mother Anna Gibbs-Malloch and her father Donald Malloch; her husband Charles Ray Miller; both of her sisters, Joyce and Doris; two granddaughters, Katherine and Melissa and great-granddaughter, Hannah.

She loved her family very much. She was a well traveled Army wife. Ann had three children in Germany and one in the state of Georgia. Her faith in God was very important to her. She exemplified this in her daily life. She was a member at River Terrace Church in Chillicothe. Ann also loved animals especially dogs.

Services will be held September 28, 2025, 3 p.m., at River Terrace Cornerstone Church with a meal to follow. All are welcomed and encouraged to come.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

SEP 28. 3:00 PM.

River Terrace Cornerstone Church
Chillicothe, IL

Tribute Wall

“ Athena Anaya lit a candle in memory of Anna S. Miller

---

Athena Anaya - September 21, 2025 at 05:00 PM

“ Some of my fondest memories with Grandma are in her kitchen in Arizona, watching her peel potatoes and trying on her Avon sample lipsticks. Those simple times will always be part of my memories of her.

---

Anna Norman - September 20, 2025 at 08:17 PM