“ I remember walking with Bev at a football game and loving her bellbottom jeans as well as her always laughing in gym class. She had a contagious laugh. We also sat next to each other at graduation. I do miss her and her hilarious posts. I pray she is laughing with the angels. ❤️

“ Bev was one of my favorite sisters. It really hit me hard. People didn't realize the warped sense of humor we had towards one another. I'll miss you badly. Love you Beverly!!!
