Life Reflections

Bunny was a very well-known people's person, she was the life of the party. Everywhere her children went people knew that those were Bunny's kids all by the lips and nose. Bunny was a mother of 11 and a sister of 20 siblings. She was a great cook and loved making recipes from scratch. She was a renowned Christian and a member of Victory Baptist Church in Peoria, where they welcomed her with open arms. She was a loving mother, grandmother, sister, daughter, and friend to many of her peers. She loved to dress up for every occasion and wanted to look good anywhere she went.

Bunny leaves to cherish her memories of seven daughters: Victoria, Dorthea, Tammara, Printessa, Jasmine, Montria, and My Asia, five sons: Jonathan Jr, Javon, Javion, Jaquille, and Kenneth. Also surviving are seven brothers: Robert, Roosevelt, Freddie, Andre, Eddie, Victor, and Leroy, nine sisters: Dora, Shirley Ann, Melvina, Annette, Annie Mae, Arlethis, Felicia, Tonya and Tina, 23 grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews.
