

Carolyn Denise Brown

August 8, 1958 - September 26, 2022

Carolyn Denise Brown was born in Los Angeles, California on August 8, 1958, to Alice Dezell. She attended Wendall Phillips and graduated from High School.

Carolyn enjoyed cooking and hanging out with family and friends. She was a kindhearted person and made everyone and anyone she met smile. She was no stranger to anyone she met. When we went somewhere, she would speak to people as if she knew them and they would hold a conversation as if they had known each other for a while.

Although Carolyn was faced with many obstacles in her life, she always kept a positive attitude. She never complained, she just took it one day at a time. I am so glad she had that type of spirit. I enjoyed the hours we talked and the times I was able to spend with her.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her mother, Alice Dezell, her sister, Linda Mae Irons, and her brother, Darrell T. Dezell. She leaves behind her sister, Charlyn (Jerold) Worthem, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She will be missed.
