“ In the few short years we knew her she made a big impact on our lives. I grew to love her, not many people would welcome you to come stay at their home after only knowing you for a short time. So many laughs, she taught me to love Pistachios, now I'm addicted. Frank, you and the family will continue to be in our prayers. We will see her again and she will be free of sickness and pain. We love you Bro.

“ Lots of memories of times at the Fleming household. Guess I will never know who made the trip in the '58 Chevy with Sis to return the sailor's cap! Always enjoyed Connie's quick with shared on FB. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I'm saddened reading this news! I had the pleasure of working with Connie at Caterpillar and, yes, there were a lot of laughs! After that time, we seemed to always run into each other at restaurants or bakeries! She was the best! My condolences to all who knew and loved her!

“ I share this In loving memory of my dear friend Connie Dorsey. Truly one of the bravest and kindest souls I have ever known. We worked together at OSF, and there was no one who didn't love Connie. As a nurse she had an inherent sense for the best way to handle any situation with kindness, intelligence, respect and integrity. Her bubbly and mischievous sense of humor was never far, and she had this quirky laughter that was just so contagious! After our working years, I was lucky enough to share a Florida life with Connie and her husband Frank, along with a lovely gang of Peoria friends who colonized the Vero Beach area.
We ate, biked, shopped, beached, played games, painted, laughed, scoured thrift shops to decorate our condos, and did I say ate? O yes! Especially Coconut Cake from Toojays!

Connie showed us how to fight when she was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. She honestly never lost her optimism, desire to live, and unfailing ability to still focus on others, her family and friends, and especially her beloved husband Frank. Our life was so the richer because of Connie's influence.

Rest in heavenly peace my dear friend.

I will see you down the road!
