“ Prayer to your kids and grandkid’s. Most of all life brings everyone together to celebrate life. But one thing your not here. God had bigger plans for you. He called you home. I know you wasn’t much into church. When our parents made us go. But watch over the ones that were in your life. Cause no one is guaranteed next day. Life to short . Remember memories close you have of Danny .

“ Danny I will miss you so much. I remember all the times you helped me with remodeling my home. You definitely had a talent in remodeling old homes. Always found a way to make things look great. Even though I know you are with our brothers Paul and William and mom and dad, I still wish you were here with us. Until I see you again love and miss you.
