“ I just learned of Evelyn’s passing and would love to connect with family to share all my wonderful stories of high school together in San Jose, California. I sent birthday and Xmas cards, but last year it was returned and my heart sank. My name is Ellen Romani (Lipuma when we went to school) and email is ellenlipuma@yahoo.com. I would love to share my many photos of our adventures together with those that loved her. She was a true friend during those hard high school years and I will be forever grateful to call her my friend.
