

James "Jimmy" Guillaume

April 26, 1979 - June 16, 2026

It is with great sorrow that we announce the sudden passing of James Guillaume, lovingly known as Jimmy, Blue Devil, or Whity Cuz, on June 16th at 10:01 am, due to a massive stroke that resulted in a severe brain bleed. After a valiant two-day struggle, James earned his wings to reunite with his mother Kathleen and other family members and friends who preceded him in death.

James was a remarkable individual who embodied the spirit of generosity and kindness. He would often go out of his way to assist those in need, be it family or friends, and his actions were a testament to his selfless nature. His philosophy was that giving was more rewarding than receiving, and he lived by these words.

Although he would likely be humble about it, his family is seeking assistance from loved ones to provide him with a dignified farewell. Any contributions towards this cause would be deeply appreciated by his wife, Rebecca Guillaume, their two sons, Chris Guillaume and Lamoine, daughter-in-law Tristin Guillaume, and granddaughter Samantha. To offer support and in lieu of flowers the family asks to please contact Rebecca Guillaume via Facebook Messenger or phone call.

Rest in peace, James Robert Guillaume, born April 26th, 1979, and passed away on June 16th, 2026.
