

Jana Wyckoff-Dike

March 18, 1956 - September 1, 2023

Jana Wyckoff-Dike, 67, of Peoria, IL, passed away peacefully on Friday, September 1, 2023, with loved ones by her side.

Jana was born in Peoria, IL on March 18, 1956, to Arthur and Patricia Wyckoff. She graduated from Richwoods High School in 1974 and attended Illinois Central College. She married David Dike in 1984. She held various jobs over the years and became a homemaker after her son was born. She grew up attending Mt. Olive Missionary Church. She loved animals of all kinds, anything purple, crafting for her family, watching old westerns and murder mysteries, and enjoyed sending Jacquie Lawson e-cards to show her love. Her greatest gift was her son, Tristan, to whom she devoted her life. She is survived by her son, Tristan Wyckoff, her father, Arthur Wyckoff, siblings Jody (Doug) Cheney, and Jay (Sandy) Wyckoff, and her best friend, Joy (Gus) Mason. She was preceded in death by her mother, Patricia (Holzschuh) Wyckoff and grandparents, Raymond and Mary Wyckoff, and Louis and Florence Holzschuh.

Memorial donations may be made to Peoria Rescue Ministries. PRM is special to the family as Jana's grandmother, Florence Holzschuh, co-founded the organization to serve those in need throughout the Peoria area. A private, graveside service will be held at a later date.

“ Jana has been my best friend my entire life. We shared and told each other everything. I will truly miss our late night talks, and it hurts my  to know I can never call you again. You are longer in pain, and for that I am thankful. Rest easy my dear friend....I will miss you forever.
