“ My heart is so shattered. I've thankful to God for giving me your friendship in my life. Lori, I'll always always cherish you as I have when you were here.
I'll always have memories of our alone time at the fish store. I loved it when you got new fish in. Always excited to place them in their tanks. That was the best, fun and great belly laughs I've ever experienced in a friendship. I will keep you still in my thoughts & heart. That wont ever go away just because your gone. 💖
