

Lucky Stuttle

June 19, 1948 - June 27, 2025

Lucky Stuttle passed away June 27, 2025, after a life lived on her own terms for most of her 77 years. She was born at Methodist Hospital on June 19, 1948, to Fred and Ellen Stuttle after a string of miscarriages prompted her parents to say that if she survived, she'd be lucky to be alive, and the name stuck. Throughout her life, Lucky was passionate about the things she loved—from her kitties and feeding the squirrels, to favorite shows on public television and her quirky house in East Peoria. Above all, Lucky loved her brothers Jon and Fred Stuttle, her sister Gay Gilliam, and dear friend Cynthia Hudgens-Sauder, all of whom preceded her in death; her daughter Alison Watson (Brooklyn, NY); her sister Ellen Stuttle (Hartford, CT); her niece Dawn Bruneau (Louisville, KY); and her beloved brother James Stuttle and his wife Rosemary (Peoria). There will be no services per her request, but Lucky would encourage donations to Central Illinois Riding Therapy at cirt.info.
