“ Mark was a resident where I live at he was nice & polite to me talked to me always asking how I was doing with my pain issues. When he was on resident console he enjoyed when we could play music bingo that he would set up. RIP

“ Dad was always a corky character always made all of us kids and grandkids laugh with his jokes and his laughter that filled a room. I will always love you Dad and you have left this world too soon. You'll definitely be missed.

“ I met Mark in high school and he was one of the nicest guys at Richwoods. Kind and gentle to everyone. It has been a highlight in my life to reconnect with Mark in recent years. Unsurprisingly, Mark was still a sweetheart. He sent me all kinds of music I hadn't listened to before and it opened my mind. We talked about everything from philosophy to cooking and every day life. His parting leaves a giant hole. RIP, dear friend.
