

Mary "Beckie" Maxwell

April 4, 2021 - November 20, 2021

Mary Rebecca Maxwell, known as Beckie, born April 4, 1948 in Peoria, Illinois, passed away after a battle with cancer on November 20, 2021. She is survived by her two children, Michael and Sarah Nesbit; preceded by death by her parents and two brothers. She attended Peoria High School and went on to graduate from Bradley University with a Bachelor's Degree in Science. She taught at Germantown Hills Elementary and District 150 in Peoria. She went on to work at State Farm Insurance Company as a Claims Adjuster. Health problems left her disabled for the last 20 years. Her interests were reading about the pioneers in the Wild West, Appalachia, and Alaska. She also loved digital painting and was fond of animals, especially her dear pet chihuahua Lily who is now with her. Her relationship to God and her kids were of the utmost importance to her. She had much courage throughout a lengthy illness and gave hope and inspiration to many. There will be a funeral mass at St. Mary of the Lourdes and the date will be announced soon.
