“ My name is Helen (Putnam) Jackson. In the early '70's i was married to Maureen's husband's brother. After our divorce i moved out of state and eventually she and i fell out of contact. I have thought of her often and regret now that i didnt try to reconnect. We always got on well before, and from the personal tribute in her obituary, I'm sure we would have gotten along well in our later years I would like to contact her daughter Andrea somehow. I have a couple of letters and pictures of your mom i would like to pass on. You can find me on Facebook.
