“RIP Michael, I know we lost touch over the years but you were a cool brother in-law! I'll never forget the first day we met Michael. My friend Gina, my sister Carol and myself all decided to go to a dance club and my friend noticed Michael there, Gina use to attend high school with Michael. Small world! She mentioned he was on the football team. He was very out going and handsome and he knew it. He was just that way, highly confident and knew what he wanted! I saw the way Michael looked at Carol, I knew immediately they would hit it off! Gina introduced Michael and Carol and they exchanged numbers, the rest is history. Carol and Michael made a beautiful couple and beautiful children. They may not have stayed in the marriage but they loved their children deeply. Farra, Witnee, Alyiah & Shane, I am truly sorry for the loss of your father. No matter where your dad is, he'll always be watching over all of you and his grandkids. Sending healing prayers and comforting hugs your way. I'm here if you need anything ❤️ Love, Auntie Lori and family ❤️
