“ Pat was such a sweet lady. She loved her family very much and was very proud of them. Pat would tell me about them every day when I would stop by. I miss seeing her and Lucy. They were always ready to give me some love Pat and I developed a great relationship in the almost 3 years that I delivered to her. I think about her almost every day and pray for peace and healing for her family.

“ We are greatly saddened by the loss of a wonderful friend, Patricia Ulick. Pat was a great lady , full of joy and humanity. Even into her late 80s when she began having serious health issues, she remained a caring and steadfast friend and loving grandmother , mother and great grandmother . Her humanity was best displayed in her devotion to her menagerie of tiny dogs that kept her company as for many decades. We thought of her as our dear friend and dog guru. Pat will be missed by many, but we can be consoled knowing that she lived a good long life ,befitting such a good lady
