“ What can i say about mike or the berry family. He was always the kindest, real human. The man always had knowledge of anything with an engine. He always treated me like family and had a smile always. One of the strongest handshakes with even stronger morals. He was a rare breed and a great human to look up to and share a laugh with. He will be missed and loved by many. Im lucky to have had the blessing of knowing a man like him.
