“ Paul was one of the most influential friends of my life ! He was one of the first people that I came out to as gay! And he told me it didn't matter to him of my sexuality he loved me as a friend and I loved him as my best friend! We had many good times in our lives and he will always have a special place in my heart forever! I love him always and he was a blessing to me in my life! I Love You Paul my friend forever thank you for being the friend you were to me! God Bless You !

“ Paul was a long time friend. He had a voice that should be on the radio. I sought his life-advice on more than one occasion. It was great fun on the rare times I beat him in poker. My greatest heartfelt condolences toCarolynn, Jessica and all of his family. Gods' grace be with you all.
