“ To The Family of the Late Paulette Jackson:\n \nAnd God shall wipe away all tears from their eye; And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, Neither shall there be any more pain. For the former things are passed away. Revelation 21:4 \n\n\nGod hath not promised skies always blue, \nFlowers-strewn pathways all our lives through. \n God hath not promised sun without rain,\n Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.\n But God hath promised strength for the day, \n Rest for the labor, light for the way, \nUnfailing and undying Love.\n\nWe the Pastor and members of Grace Baptist Church, Peoria, Illinois wants the family to know that our hearts are with you in the passing of your loved one. You have our sincere prayers. \n\n“Wait on the Lord, be of good courage and He shall strengthen your heart.”\n Psalm 27:14\nHumbly Submitted \n\nGRACE BAPTIST CHURCH\n405 N. Richard Pryor Place\nPeoria, IL 61605\n\n\nPASTOR C.L. WHITE JR.\n\nALNEIDA FORD, CHURCH SECRETARY

“ Paulette could be funny, challenging, serious, intelligent and she didn't take any wooden nickels from anyone. She has helped me out of a few hard situations and I am forever grateful. Paulette gave me the dress that I married my husband in. Thank you cuz and may you rest in peace. Love you

“ Heartfelt condolences to you and your family. I really enjoyed knowing Paulette, she was the most comedic and pleasant person to have as a cousin. She always had a warm smile, and something clever and funny to share. Rest in peace. Your Cousin Sharon & Family.

“ Love and Heartfelt Condolences to the family. I had the momentary encounters of encouragement from Ms.Paulette through My friend Grace and our children, she would communicate about their politeness and good manners while we were around and expressed family values. I love being around the elders and she carried a wisdom that was felt and appreciated. Thankful for those pockets of time minimal but special, gone but not forgotten.
