

Peggy J Taylor

February 27, 1949 - November 27, 2019

Peggy (Kelley) Taylor was raised to heaven on November 27, 2019 surrounded by her loving family. She was born on February 27, 1949 to Philip and Maxine (Boots) Kelley. Peggy was preceded in death by her parents, her brother Stephen Kelley, and numerous other family members.

She is survived by her husband of fifty-one years William Taylor, their two daughters Stefanie (Phil) Evans, Jennifer (Craig) Roberts along with three grandchildren, Logan Evans, Blake Evans, Drew Bennett and two step grandchildren Benjamin and Elizabeth Roberts.

Peggy was an adoring and devoted Wife, Mother and Grandmother. She took great pleasure in spending time with her family and friends. She was an excellent cook. Peggy loved baking, gardening, and reading. She worked endless hours with her husband contributing to Taylor Rental's their real estate small business. She was passionate about fixing up older homes in the town of Farmington and embraced each new endeavor. She also dedicated herself to driving a school bus in the community for thirty eight years because of her love of children and her town of Farmington.

A private celebration of life will occur and burial will follow at Oak Ridge Cemetery in Farmington, Illinois. As an expression of sympathy, memorial contributions can be made to OSF Richard Owens Hospice Home in Peoria, Illinois or the Farmington, Illinois Area Food Pantry.

Cremation rites have been accorded.
