“ Rest in peace, Sandi. I was sad to hear that you left us, but you are no longer in pain. The memory keeps coming into my mind of the last time I saw you last year here in Florida. We were having lunch and you led us in prayer. I will hold onto that memory of you and I know that you are now in the arms of our Lord. As you said in your last phone message to me, "I love you and I'll see you in Heaven."
