“ When Robert and I came to Missouri with Candice, Makayla and RJ, we went driving to different shop in the area. I had to pull over a couple of time because of the roads. When we got back Sylvia asks Robert if there was going to be a wedding soon. I think she was the only one that knew.

Then Richard and Sylvia drove down to Houston for the wedding and they were the only ones driving to Houston because everyone else was going out of town because of an approaching hurricane.

After the ceremony, Robert went to bed earlier because he was up all night helping Jack get the bay house closed up. So for the honeymoon night Sylvia and Richard spend their evening with me.

We had good time when Richard and Sylvia came to Houston during the winter months. Shipleys was very busy during those time. Sylvia will be missed by many.
