“ Tammy, You will not Be forgotten. You were the most sincere person that I know. When my mom died you were there. Even when I thought you were off doing something else you would pop up with the most comforting words or food. You save me a few times when I got my self into too many big projects, they you were once again to save me. I wish I was there to save you, I miss you so very much. Tammy was a Caring loving person. I hope to see you again one day. ”

May you rest in peace, sweet cousin. I will hold only happy memories of our childhood days, swimming all day, bike rides, sleepovers, lots of family gatherings. Gone too soon! Praying for comfort to all my family.

Tammy...What a great friend and cousin, you were. Thank you, for all the unconditional love you gave me. Watching HBO on the couch, was the best. May you sit with the Angel's, forever and ever...Peace with you every moment.

I often refer to my childhood as having been 'golden'. You were an integral part of that as well as the rest of your family. Living just across the street and spending so very much time with all of you are much of what I am thinking of when I describe my childhood. We had so much fun growing up together. You are and have always been loved so much. As years passed, we grew apart, but you were never gone from my heart. You will be missed dear sweet cousin Tammy. Knowing you were greeted by those Golden Gates gives us peace knowing you are in loving Hands. May God rest your soul forever in His peace. You will be missed, until we meet again.

Dear Tammy, I find Peace knowing that you are looking into the eyes of Jesus and you have found the Peace and Joy that you have always looked for and deserved! Someday we will meet again and share that special love and friendship that we had ever since you were born! I will always remember my precious little red-headed beauty with that sweet little smile. You were loved and you will never be forgotten. I will always remember when you and Skylar came to Church with me on my Bus Route and got Saved! You truly believed in what He did for you and all of us by dying on the Cross and shedding His blood for our sins. I remember your prayer of thanking him for his sacrifice and telling Him that you were sorry for your sins and to please forgive you. You told Him that you loved Him and asked Him and the Holy Spirit to come into your heart and begged Him to take you to Heaven when you died! That day has come, sooner than we all had hoped but by the Grace of God you are where we all belong! You have run a good race and won the prize and will Glory in it for all Eternity! Thank God!! I pray we will all someday join you because we all will ask him into our Hearts too!! Love you my dear precious Tammy, Aunt Mary Ellen
