“ Even though we were divorced for many Years we still remained friends. You helped me out so many times I can't count them. Even though you were ready for bed you got dressed and came to my rescue when my car wouldn't start. You came out in a snow storm the next day to take me to the dealership to pick it up . You were always ready to help anyone who needed it family, friends or neighbors.

“ Terry, I will never forget the beautiful canna flowers you used to plant. They were so beautiful. I always admired them. Among your other talents, you certainly enjoyed working in your yard. In honor of your love of gardening, I have ordered a tree to be planted in your memory.

I will miss not receiving my annual birthday call from you. It was fun to tease each other as we were just days apart in age.

Your days of suffering are over and it is time to join your heavenly family. Thanks for laughs throughout the years.

I offer my sincere condolences to your family and hope they will find comfort in the memories you all shared.

Love, Liz
