

Thomas Brooks Crawford

December 10, 1987 - June 26, 2025

Thomas Brooks Crawford, 37, of Bloomington passed away June 26, 2025, at his residence.

He was born December 10, 1987, in Peoria to Robert and Jeanne (Spata) Crawford.

Thommy is survived by his parents; brother, Craig; sister-in-law, Veronica Harper; grandparents, Patricia Crawford and Robert (Sue) Crawford; nieces and nephew, Sofia, Sylvia Rose and Javier; many aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Richard Harper.

Thommy was a true original, a passionate musician, a culinary artist, and above all, a kind and genuine soul who touched the lives of everyone around him.

Music was Tommy's heartbeat. With a collection of 15 guitars (and more pedals than we could count), he poured his energy into his band, Dripping Slits, playing shows all over. Off the stage, his creativity came alive in the kitchen crafting sauces, soups, and sandwiches with the same passion he had for music.

But it's the little things we'll miss the most. Like the water bottle his niece decorated, something he brought with him to work every single day. Or the 2:00 AM text messages filled with excitement about a new menu idea, or a bold request for "hotter peppers" for his latest sauce experiment.

Tommy was thoughtful, hilarious, incredibly smart, and deeply caring. His presence brought joy, laughter, and heart to our lives, and it's hard to imagine our days without him.
