“ During her struggles I tried to always be there for someone to talk to, to have a safe haven to stay at when she needed it. She is my baby sister and my heart is broken. I love you sis. Till we see each other again .

“ Where do I start. I love you Tiffany Dawn, I only wish it didn't take Dylan's passing to bring us together. I had absolutely no idea how much you actually loved Dylan with everything you are until his passing. The best gift he ever gave you is bringing you to Jesus Christ. I know for a fact that you two are dancing in the heavens for eternity. Love you and always will Tiffany Dawn Phillips till we meet again.

“ I’m so sorry to hear about Tiffany’s passing. We had talked since high school, but I have so many great memories of her. She was my best friend from fourth grade through junior high. I always loved staying with her especially when she lived out in the country. I’ll never forget her friendship. I know how much she loved her kids and family. Thinking of all her family. Sue and Amanda, I know it wasn’t all easy, but she lived you both so much.

“ My sister, even though younger, was often my mentor. She taught me so much and saved me from myself more times than I can count. She helped me through my own battle with alcohol and drugs. When she loved, she loved with her entire heart. When she was mad, she was explosive. The Tiffany of the last 5 or so years is not the Tiffany I will remember. She was not herself. She was in there somewhere. She is free now. At peace.
