“ She was Gina to me and a close school friend and we were cheerleaders together in Jr. high school. Such a pretty girl and fun, great laugh and had lovable parents and we were at their home often. Only had contact with her and husband Dick at class reunions...sorry about not keeping in touch over years. My condolences to all of family , especially Tom as i knew him too. She left me with good memories of being friends but sad to hear of her death. blessings. , Lois McKasson Close.
