“ West will be truly missed by me so much. I met West at our meeting hall Sanity. We seen each other every day down at the transit center, West always sat on the same bench every day. And we road the bus up to our meeting together every day. And he was the one to pull the cord so the bus driver new it was time for us to get off the bus. He would tell me all about the butches pizza he was gonna eat for dinner. I will miss my dear friend truly. May he Rest In Peace your dear friend Kristy

“ West will be missed. Our hearts are aching with his sudden peaceful passing. He accepted Jesus Christ into his life as a young boy. Often he would say to me "do you remember when I was baptized?" Yes, of course. He initiated baptism at age 5. Often told me of reading his Bible & understanding his commitment. As an Aunt I have so many memories of his childhood.....his sweet smile & personality. As a twin, he & his sister were always together. What a blessing they are to our family. In the last few months, West was calling & texting me when there was something he was excited about. In August he bought a bed & bedding. He called to tell me & texted me a picture of it. A few weeks later, he called to say he bought a new couch, texted me a picture. Our last conversation was the day after Thanksgiving when he called to tell me of the wonderful Thanksgiving he had with his Dad. West's voice.....rings in my ears....his excitement & willingness to share it with me. I am blessed & thankful for West in my life.
